IMPORTANT NOTICES

* indicates a required field

Eligibility

Ideal applicants will demonstrate a strong commitment to their principal field of studies in computer sciences and to interdisciplinary work, for example by undertaking double degrees or interdisciplinary projects.

Applications will not be accepted for researchers who (1) hold a permanent position or (2) have participated in a previous Heidelberg Laureate Forum.

The applicant must be an Australian-based early career researcher, who has been selected to attend the 2023 Heidelberg Laureate Forum and who meets the following criteria:

- 1.a) Is currently enrolled in a research higher degree (Master of Philosophy (MPhil), Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) or a Postdoctoral Fellowship) at an Australian University; or
- 2.b) Has (1) undertaken a research higher degree (Master of Philosophy (MPhil), Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) or a Postdoctoral Fellowship) and the applicant's most recent higher degree has been conferred for less than five years and is (2) working in an Australian university, Australian publicly-funded research organisation or research focused institution at the date of the Heidelberg Laureate Forum.

Do	you	meet	eligibility	criteria?	*
$\circ$	Yes
$\bigcirc$	No

Terms and conditions

- 1.Applications will be assessed on the basis of their qualifications and motivation to attend the Heidelberg Laureate Forum by an Academy-appointed expert panel.
- 2.The Academy's grant-in-aid will contribute AUD3,500 towards the costs of travel to attend the meeting. Delegates must make their own travel arrangements.
- 3.Successful applicants will be required to submit a report and provide evidence that the funds have been appropriately expended within one month of the completion of the meeting.

Do you accept all of the above terms and conditions? *

YesNo

Applicant agreement

As you selected 'No' to the above eligibility and/or terms and conditions you are not able to complete this application. Please contact The Academy of Science: lynn.allan@science.org.au to discuss further.
