Eligibility

Ideal applicants will demonstrate a strong commitment to their principal field of studies in computer sciences and to interdisciplinary work, for example by undertaking double degrees or interdisciplinary projects.

Applications will not be accepted for researchers who (1) hold a permanent position or (2) have participated in a previous Heidelberg Laureate Forum.

The applicant must be an Australian-based early career researcher, who has been selected to attend the 2023 Heidelberg Laureate Forum and who meets the following criteria:

- 1.a) Is currently enrolled in a research higher degree (Master of Philosophy (MPhil), Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) or a Postdoctoral Fellowship) at an Australian University; or
- 2.b) Has (1) undertaken a research higher degree (Master of Philosophy (MPhil), Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) or a Postdoctoral Fellowship) and the applicant's most recent higher degree has been conferred for less than five years and is (2) working in an Australian university, Australian publicly-funded research organisation or research focused institution at the date of the Heidelberg Laureate Forum.
